

Illinois Freemasonry Membership Development The Short Talk Bulletin Podcasts - Recommendations List

[Updated 10/10/23]

The Masonic Services Association of North America (MSA) has been printing and distributing The Short Talk Bulletins on a monthly basis since 1923. More recently, they have been producing professional audio recordings (podcasts) of older bulletins to make those timeless lessons of Masonic Enlightenment available to a new generation of Freemasons. These podcasts are available at no cost from The Short Talk Bulletin Podcasts website, <https://shorttalkbulletin.com>.

Our Grand Lodge Membership Committee curated the list of Short Talk Bulletin Podcasts below to provide a rare and valuable Membership Development experience for all Master Masons. These recommended podcasts provide an excellent learning opportunity for Brethren seeking to significantly advance their personal “Masonic Journey of Self-Improvement” and gain a deeper understanding, appreciation and respect for the age-old wisdom provided by our ancient and honorable fraternity.

How to listen to the Podcasts? — You can listen to the podcasts directly on the website. Also, you can access the podcasts via Apple Podcasts, Android, Google Podcasts, etc. These digital apps, platforms and methods make it even easier to enjoy this valuable information at your convenience.
